

Technological Holocaust

Disbelief of Remote Mind Control Technologies Is Enabling Lethal Crimes Against Humanity

What's happening is so outrageously inhumane that the natural response is to slip into shocked denial, overwhelm, or complete disbelief, but there is NOT time for this type of response. This situation is already at a critical point.

Although remote mind control sounds like something out of a science fiction horror movie, I beg you to take this seriously, because ongoing successful use of such technologies are a devastating reality for growing numbers of individuals and communities, since Hitler's first reign of success with them. This covert aim to control humanity is being done through computers, which utilize technologies like HAARP, satellites, cell towers and other sorts of radio wave transmitters that can operate at the same frequency as the human brain.

Mind control on individuals is done through directing beams of microwave energy, or other types of radio waves, into specific parts of a person's brain. Depending upon which part of the brain is invaded and which frequency is used, this can either put us into a hypnotic state for the delivery of whatever messages the intruder wants to give us, or it can instigate a wide range of emotional responses - from mental numbness and depression to anxiety and extreme irritability. This can also be done to whole communities in a more general brainwashing, through shifting the frequencies and the subliminal messages they are encoded with. This can be VERY effective.

It appears that there has already been a mass brainwashing against the belief that remote mind control is even possible, because most people seem unable to even think of the possibility of this devastating reality. The unusual part is that people seem to not even want to TRY to investigate it, although THOUSANDS of victims have been crying out for help. This sad scenario, on its own, can be proof of mass mind control, because there is scientific proof of such technologies and just a little bit of common sense can KNOW that they were created to be used. Seriously! There is no way around this obvious fact.

For the sake of restoring the integrity of humanity please let your heart take a glimpse at the forbidden atrocities that perverted criminals can perform with these secret remote technologies, which are also capable of creating a heart attack or stroke as well as stimulating any nerve or organ in our bodies. . .including the ability to instantly render a person unconscious. (Keep in mind that these technologies can see through walls and into a person's body in similar ways to that of cat scans.) Can you imagine what kinds of abuses will continue and increase if the general public remains unaware of being held under satellite surveillance by criminals who use mind control technologies and laser weapons...etc.?

The crime of technological experimentation on non-consenting families and individuals was happening long before the Patriot Act made it legal in the USA. . .and with what appears to be psychopathic criminals holding the top controls and aiming to create confusion, suffering and chaos in the process of desensitizing us and gaining complete control, the destruction can soon become as debilitating for all of humanity as it has been for the families who've been being experimented on through the past few decades. (I am from one of those families.)

With the use of these secret technologies. . .deceitful control of countries can easily take place, without us even knowing what's happening, not to mention what the mind control is doing to harm peoples free will and spirit and soul...etc. This is an indescribably dangerous situation! I feel that ALL of humanity is already in critical danger and that the USA is already in the process of a silent takeover, which is manipulating and utilizing our own troops and law enforcement against us. Please do not discount this without investigating it, for your own sake as well as the rest of humanity's. (I'd like to believe that most government, military and law enforcement personnel are also long term victims of remote mind control and are, at this time, being used by the leaders of this holocaust, because the alternative is inexcusable.)

The perpetrators of this holocaust are masters at deceptive set ups for blame to be placed on innocent people or nations. We must be VERY careful to not continue falling into their traps. Though PARTS of our own governments may be involved with the higher levels of this atrocity, it seems to extend beyond this and into the UN, into what some view as the global "elite," into Hitler's scientists and satanic occults. . .or all of these...etc.

There are also technologies, which can detect the radio waves and microwave energies that humanity is being attacked and controlled with. Put those into uncontrolled hands, (at times when the perpetrators are not watching and stopping attacks,) and see what you find. Until you do this, and THOROUGHLY investigate this situation, your disbelief is unjustified.

Symptoms of Remote Brain Monitoring and Control

Many victims will experience a faint high pitched ringing in their ears, which they may not even notice. Others may experience any number of the following symptoms and some that are not listed here. The symptoms may happen suddenly and then disappear as quickly. They may come and go or slowly increase and continue almost constantly. There are many variables.

High pitched ringing in ears (from faint to moderate) ~ Light headedness or dizziness ~ interrupted thoughts ~ Faint sharp pains shooting into head ~ Unusual headaches ~ Mental fatigue ~ Diminished or increased hearing ~ Diminished or increased eye sight ~ Unusual decrease or increase in memory ~ Unusual thoughts ~ Unusual swings in emotions ~ Burning sensation or metallic taste in mouth ~ Digestive problems ~ Slow or suddenly altered belief systems ~ Unusual spiritual experiences ~ Slow or sudden change in personal preferences ~ Slow or sudden change in personality ~ Slow or sudden drop in morals ~ Slow or sudden change in values ~ Unusual depression ~ Unusual anxiety ~ Unusual cycles of being stuck in anger...etc. ~ Episodes of gibberish talk ~ Aneurysms...etc.

Some people seem less susceptible to being completely controlled. (I'm glad to be one of these.) People who are taking mood altering drugs, like anti-depressants, are VERY susceptible to being completely controlled. In 2008 there were news reports of mood altering drugs being found in around TWO DOZEN major public water supplies in the USA. I believe there is a connection here.

Our own hearts and natural instincts can override some of the remote manipulations. BUT if we are not AWARE of what is happening we can easily confuse them with our own thoughts, feelings and instincts. It is only through awareness and a strong will that we can avoid manipulations that are alien to our own nature. But when issues or feelings, that already have roots inside us, are fueled it is more difficult to resist.

Never, in the history of humanity, has there been a more devastating holocaust or a more crucial time for us to open our Hearts and unite into a peaceful regaining of our freedom and basic human rights.

Let's face this with determination to preserve humanity,
With gentle hands reaching out to those in need,
With peaceful non-acceptance of the evil seed.

A World Gone Crazy?

I believe that the general numbness, the growing lack of care and growing levels of discord in the world are mostly due to the effects of wide spread remote mind control. The rises in crimes are being blamed on economic difficulties. But the truth is that, by nature, human beings naturally pull together during tough times - letting our Hearts help each other through. What is now happening in most societies is not natural, not normal, not meant to be. . .and is a criminal assault on an unsuspecting and defenseless populous.

It is difficult, to say the least, to face these facts and realize that such sinister forces are ALREADY taking control of our countries, our minds, our lives - our world. However, we must not only face this, but also rise up and do all that we can to stop it as quickly as possible. If you think this will not effect you. . .think again.

The ultimate remedy is to fully prosecute the criminals who are leading such atrocities and disable the technologies that are being used. But until these crimes are believed and stopped, by either a united public or agencies that are supposed to be protecting us. . .the only protection we have is to help bring these crimes into public awareness and quickly develop technologies that can block the intrusions.

Authors Jim Keith and Jerry E. Smith offer many references to documented proof of mind control technologies. Look up "Haarp: The Ultimate Weapon of the Conspiracy (The Mind-Control Conspiracy Series)" by Jerry E. Smith, and remember that HAARP is only one of many similar technologies. (It seems that Russia is secretly more advanced than the USA with these technologies.) Also look up "Mind Control, World Control" and "Mass Control: Engineering Human Consciousness" by Jim Keith. (I believe that these two authors were inconspicuously murdered when they began figuring out what is happening with remote mind control technologies.) You can also do a Yahoo search on "Remote Mind Control" and see what you find. Just keep in mind that many accurate sites have been taken down. And there are sites set up to intentionally misinform and confuse the public. So, let the heart of your own instincts do the searching.

Depopulation Operation!

These lethal technologies, which are now aimed at countless thousands of unaware civilians, are also targeting countless thousands of individuals with condensed beams of microwave energy, which is creating Lupus as well as many other lethal illnesses. General Barrie Trower – an expert in microwave weaponry, has come out of retirement to let us know about the capabilities of microwave weapons. (Search utube for his videos) Barrie has affirmed that autoimmune diseases, leukemia and other forms of cancer can be INTENTIONALLY inflicted with "Remotely Directed Microwave Energy Weapons."

Why is this happening? There appears to be a "depopulation" program that has already been being implemented through the past few decades. There even exists a UN document entitled, "Agenda 21," which I heard calls for a "90% reduction in the earth's population by the year 2025."

Please think about what this means and look at what's happening throughout the world. There are mass murders taking place through technologically generated terminal illness, through harmful substances being intentionally placed in vaccines, food, seeds, air and drinking water, through technology based weather modification, which is striking selected parts of humanity with devastating storms, tornadoes, hurricanes, tsunamis, earthquakes, droughts...etc.

Yes. It is true - Technologies like HAARP are also successfully performing weather modifications, through bouncing microwave energies off of the Earth's atmosphere...etc. A growing number of scientists feel that this explains what is being masked as "Global Warming." The book, "Weather Warfare: The Military's Plan to Draft Mother Nature" by Jerry E. Smith has good references to documented scientific proof of this. You can also do a Yahoo search for "HAARP WEAPON" or "Weather Modification Technologies" or whatever other term you may think appropriate. Again, beware of intentionally misleading posts on the web. . .and also in the media.

There appears to be a long chain of slanderous discrediting and inconspicuous murdering of researchers, writers, news reporters...etc., who have uncovered this secret operation and tried to inform the public. (They have discredited me.) So, for the most part, you will need to rely on the heart of your own instincts. Please listen carefully.

As we aim to bring these criminals to justice we must be careful not to fully blame those who have been brainwashed by them. The best avenue to take would be to fully prosecute the highest leaders of this holocaust and then help their victims regain control of their own minds and Hearts. No matter how horrible and cruel some of the lower level perpetrators have been to us, and no matter how hurt we may feel. . .we must do our best to embrace compassion so that humanity can start regaining the Heart that has been being deceitfully destroyed.

The Plight of Primary “Targeted Individuals”

Those who become a threat to the secrecy of this criminal operation and, since 2001, those who are not approved of by some of the Patriot Act surveillance teams...etc., are being tortured with cruel Hitler-style tactics.

For these individuals, remote targeting with mind control technologies, microwave energy and laser weapons, as well as constant harassment from local organized stalking groups, is a devastatingly painful reality, which there has been no protection against, and no help with, due to growing levels of disbelief in our fellow human beings. . .including government, law enforcement, media and even family members.

There has been no privacy, no freedom, no liberty, no justice and no help for those of us who are placed on this “Hit List!”

Many primary targeted individuals have been unfairly labeled as “Paranoid schizophrenics,” although what they are experiencing is very real. This has led to an uncountable number of horrifically unjust psychological deaths and suicides.

Most genuine primary targeted individuals now remain silent out of fear of being institutionalized for talking about what is happening to them and for trying to seek help. This is just too wrong and too sad. (FYI: there are many fake TI's on the web.)

In criminal attempts to prevent Primary Targeted Individuals from being heard or believed, he or she is often isolated from family and friends through a series of covert manipulations, which can include mind control and fabricated letters, emails, phone messages, rumors...etc.

Friends and family members of long term Targeted Individuals are usually unaware victims of severe levels of remote mind control, which desensitizes them to the target's plight and eventually turns them completely against him or her. . .even going so far as to make them perceive literally everything that the target does or says as wrong or bad, no matter how good or right it may be.

Through remote technologies the perpetrators are also able to eavesdrop and project voices that can be heard only by the person they are aimed at. Can you imagine the psycho games that can be played on people with these? (There is scientific proof of such technology.) The list of occultish/evil games that are inflicted is almost endless.

After the target is isolated from all possible avenues of help, the targeting is vamped up into levels of cruelty that can almost make Hitler look like an angel. The goal is the complete destruction of EVERY aspect of the target's life, in ways that appear to the rest of the world as natural or of the target's own choosing. Words cannot even begin to express how painful all of this is for the target. (I am experiencing this level of targeting.)

I understand how difficult this is to believe. But for your own sake, you best believe it sooner rather than later, because I am just touching a fraction of the surface here. It's actually worse than this. All of humanity is in SERIOUS danger! I've asked over and over again, “How can this be happening in free countries – how can this be happening in America? And the only tear filled answer that comes is: The mind control technologies combined with the stealth of secret stalking societies, has secretly been in use for so long that they have almost completely mastered undetectable cruelty and control.

Why was I targeted? I believe that, since at least 1974, my family was already under surveillance and being used for milder forms of remote technological experimentation. (I had an estranged uncle who was in the CIA) Then when I began unwittingly intuitively picking up on some of their crimes against humanity, I became a threat to their mission and my life became an indescribable mass of confusion in the hell they create.

I believe my family is just one of many thousands who've been experimented on by what can be described as psychopathic criminals. . .and that most families and individuals are not aware of what's happening to them. The intrusive cruelties extend beyond definitive words and set all of humanity into serious danger.

The Secret Criminal Part of Our Own Societies

The Secret Criminal Part of Our Own Societies

Though most people have never heard of “organized stalking” (also called “gang stalking” or “cause stalking”) the extremely sad truth is that MOST of our communities already have a secret organized stalking group in place, which is connected to the others, so that a primary target can be harassed literally everywhere he or she goes.

Some of these groups were originally set up to protect communities from criminals, but are now also being used for the criminal targeting of witnesses of these crimes against humanity. (I am one of these victims.)

I'd like to believe that most stalking group members are not aware of the truths and are not aware of the mind control technologies that can be used against them as well as the victim.

It appears that Primary Targeted Individuals are being listed, in these secret societies, as some sort of drug addict or criminal or suspected terrorist...etc., and that this is blindly believed by its members. The operation seems to be run military style – with the lower levels being unaware of the master plan. . .and in the case of these stalking groups, unaware of being used as a pawn in a lethal game that will eventually harm them as much as those whom they target.

Some stalking group members are law enforcement personnel and "neighborhood watch" groups, who believe lies that are fed down through a corrupt system. Some appear to be respected community members. Some are foolish kids who are manipulated into stalking, as if it were a game. Some are poor people who are paid to perform crimes against the targets. Some are Doctors and Dentists who plant microchips in unsuspecting victims. Many are members of dark occults with satanic intentions. MANY are veterans who are still caught up in a war. Many proudly display USA flags while destroying freedom and liberty. (I have found these depths of hypocrisy shocking!) Many are unaware victims of remote technological mind control. All of them are accomplices to the psychological and physical murders, which are now taking place throughout humanity.

Around the clock stalking and harassment is an extremely devastating part of this covert targeting. The stalkers work in groups of often a dozen or more, against one person. They secretly stalk and harass their victims in such deceitful ways that it makes them appear to be "just paranoid." The cruelty is shocking! The result is usually lethal.

I have experienced organized stalking throughout the USA (even in Hawaii), in Canada and Peru. Once we are put on the “hit list” there appears to be no escape from it. The goal of this criminal game is the complete destruction of our relationships, our homes, our jobs. . .our lives. I hear that most victims end up being murdered in ways that appear to be an accident or suicide.

Those who follow others sacrifice themselves In shadows that don't belong to them!

*What kind of world can my weary eyes See - what kind of world need grow to be?
A world where kindness picks up paces to lift broken people from wounded places.
A world where the void of greed and hate is filled with Love by the hands of fate,
A world where all is in a state of repair and none are left in deep despair.*

www.targetedinamerica.com

*A little
Beacon
Shines
Here for Me and You
With a Wish
For time
To come
And see us
Through*

Paving Broken Roads

As this Technological Holocaust escalates, and individuals grope for help, they are finding that the first roads, which had already been inconspicuously broken, were those that lead to our churches, our local and federal law enforcement agencies, our main stream media – the places we depend on for protection and help.

It looks like this silent takeover of our freedom as well as our faith and liberty...etc., with secret remote mind control technologies and other sorts of deceitful manipulations, has already reached a point where. . .in order to regain it, we must build a path through our own Hearts and hold compassionate hands out to each other. . .until we are able to pave these broken roads with the help and protection we

Personalized Disaster Relief

Since the volunteer work I did with Katrina and Rita victims, as well as my own personal experiences with disasters, I have felt saddened by the lack of uncomplicated help there is in their aftermath of catastrophes, especially for those who were already struggling, . . .and I have no doubt that this will get worse in the VERY near future, unless a miracle happens to pull us out of the heartless cycles of destruction and cruelty that humanity is being inflicted with. . .in what appears to be a mission to degrade and destroy the poor...etc. (It is sad that we are forgetting a universal truth – that those who have the biggest Hearts are humanity's True elite. Money has nothing to do with it.)

When we have the Heart to help, and money to donate, we can help more people with a lot less when we give directly to individuals and families who are in need. Through giving DIRECTLY to disaster victims, and others who are in need, we can FULLY help dozens of people with the same amount of money that would barely trickle down to temporarily help just one person. . .through most other avenues.

Far more disaster victims will be helped when we let our Hearts guide us into the kind of compassion that cares to prevent further distress through COMPLETELY lifting people back onto their feet, monetarily, emotionally and mentally. . .instead of offering only enough food or water to sustain their plight, as food pantries do. It can cost a lot less to fully help people than it does to keep them down and keep feeding them for long periods of time. . .and its far more humane. (FYI: Even drug addicts and alcoholics deserve help.)

Let's let our Hearts do the deed of FULLY helping those in need.

After disaster strikes, most victims need these three things, in order to fully recover: 1. A SAFE, kind place to live. 2. Ample time for grieving in an understanding and compassionate environment. 3. A chance to start over - uncomplicated financial assistance, to lift them back onto their own feet.

Please remember that reluctant help does not feel very helpful, because most disaster victims already feel humiliated and guilty for having to depend on other people. We should not help just because we think we should or just to make ourselves look good, because victims can only feel comforted by the type of help that comes from genuine care. Also please remember that interrogating victims, and making them prove their losses, as most agencies do, merely adds to their distress at a time when they are often already so humiliated and overwhelmed that they have a hard time remembering details, anyway. Its better to just focus on listening to our own intuition - our own "gut feelings" - our own Hearts. It is best to just offer a compassionate ear and/or a shoulder to cry on, instead of suspicious questioning, because they all DO deserve the help they need and should not have to be dealt the added distress of having to prove themselves or defend themselves against suspicions, which are usually born from a greedy, selfish search for a reason to not have to help.

No Matter what the situation is, Those who continue to suffer just haven't gotten the help they need.

In an old Native American tradition, it's required that we never let anyone know what we've done to help another person. This is to keep our egos out of it and pull our Hearts into it. Perhaps we can learn something from this wise tradition.

Restoring the Heart of Humanity

I've noticed that our Hearts can override most of the mind control intrusions. . .and that the overwhelming success of such technologies has been due to the woundedness that already had our Hearts blocked to some degree. So, the key is to quickly unblock and listen to our Hearts more than ever before.

Though most of us have heard that "it's OK to cry," we don't seem to fully realize how incredibly important it is to allow a healthy grieving process after painful situations. We usually close our Hearts, in order to avoid feeling emotional pain. Yet, this closing of our Hearts, no matter how much or how little, is causing even more pain, because crying is what washes away the pain and allows us to feel deeper levels of love and compassion for ourselves and others. I know this may sound a bit strange to some of you. But if you read the rest of this, and listen to the Wisdom in your own Heart, I'm sure you'll feel some of the Truth in what I'm saying.

Some label sadness as "negative" or "depressing". Some go so far as to say that it's "un-spiritual" or "dark" to feel, release or express sadness! Some even think that "all we need to do is use our minds to "choose joy instead," no matter how we are REALLY feeling! But my experiences show me that this avoidance of our Hearts - this suppression of our sadness, is THE very thing that actually creates and enables the darkness that is taking over our world. I feel certain that humanity's health and well-being depends on each of us allowing the natural cleansing process of healthy grieving, because releasing our emotional pain is what opens our Hearts to deeper levels of Love, Joy and Peace.

We habitually suppress our sadness, because feeling it can be uncomfortable and sometimes overwhelming, especially when it's not supported by the people around us. Even in the most supportive environments, it's difficult to completely embrace grief. Suppression is the easiest route to take, but certainly NOT the healthy one. Most of us were taught, from the day we were born, to stuff down our feelings of sadness; to "get over it", to pretend it's not there, and "put it behind us" as quickly as possible. Consequently, most of us are better at suppressing than we are at releasing our pain. We act as if crying is doing something wrong or shameful! We waste a lot of energy trying to avoid feeling anything but shallow imitations of joy. We stuff down our sadness with overdoses of caffeine, nicotine, alcohol, food, drugs, TV, sleeping, thinking, working...etc. We tend to keep ourselves so busy and so distracted that there's no time to feel anything! And we often try to stop others from feeling their feelings, because their sadness triggers ours. And on and on and on the unhealthy cycle goes.

I feel 100% certain that deeper levels of grieving/crying is an absolute necessity for the health of our Hearts, our families, our communities, our countries. . .our world.

Suppressing sadness - the closing of our Hearts, is the root cause of ALL the problems we face, on both personal and global levels:

On the smaller scales. . .suppressing our feelings of sadness causes our Hearts to start blocking to the point where we start losing our ability to feel compassion, peace, Love and joy. Greed begins attempting to fill the voids with money and possessions. Our connection to the deeper, wiser parts of ourselves and to the Highest Power, becomes more and more blocked. Is any of this sounding familiar?

On the larger scales. . .Severe suppression of sadness, causes Hearts to become so blocked that they begin filling up with deep levels of greed, warped senses of spirituality and a thirst for power over others. A completely blocked Heart breeds psychopathic types of behaviors, which are THE root cause of the worldwide Technological Holocaust that we are now experiencing.

Sadness is not depressing! It's the suppression of it that depresses us.

I'm not suggesting that we walk around trying to cry all the time. But I AM saying that we should work at allowing the depths of our Heart's natural cleansing process - that we should allow and support a healthy grieving process far more than we now do. And I'm praying for us to take a deeper look at the damaging effects of the "NO crying/grieving allowed" messages, we deliver to our loved ones. I cringe every time I hear the popular Christmas song, "You better be good. You better not cry. I'm telling you why. . .Santa Clause is coming to town...". I'm sure we would not even think of writing and playing songs like this for our children, if we knew how damaging it is. Sometimes, when I hear this song, I sing along and loudly change the words to, "You'd better cry...", because our Heart's need to utilize their natural cleansing process. The "Silent Epidemic" needs to be cured, in order for us to start healing our world, ESPECIALLY through the tough times we now face. It's OK to cry. It is! It really is.

Crying is like giving the Heart a shower to wash away accumulated dirt.

No matter how difficult life is today - no matter how much is torn away
The sun will rise on all of humanity as we embrace our Hearts and set Love free.